- h) The Municipality may grant a reduction of the separation distance criteria where it can be proven that a proposal will not negatively impact adjacent land uses. Prior to granting a reduction, the Municipality will consult with all agencies deemed appropriate and will require registered written agreement from all land owners directly affected by the reduction.
- i) In determining proximity to a multi-parcel residential subdivision, village, town, or recreational use, separation distances shall be measured from the area of confinement of the animals to the property boundary of the closest developable parcel.

- l) The operator may be required to enter into a road maintenance agreement to pay for the maintenance of roads required to provide access to the development.
- m) m) The minimum separation distance between occupied dwellings riparian areas and the location where manure is to be spread is listed below. Distances are measured between edge of the manure application area and the edge of a nearest property boundary in meters.

Location Separation Criteria for Manure Spreading to Dwellings (In meters)

The following regulations are intended to apply supplementary standards for development in areas designated as having significant heritage resources potential. The overlay provisions would apply to areas identified by the Ministry responsible and can be found at www.heritagesask.ca. The mapping by Heritage Branch is continuously being updated; therefore the map is not defined in the OCP or Zoning Bylaw.

12.1 DEFINING THE BOUNDARY

Archaeological, historic features and paleontological sensitive lands within the Rural Municipality include:

- a) Lands located within the same quarter-section as, or within 500 meters of, a Site of a Special Nature as defined in The Heritage Property Act.
- b) Lands within 500 meters of other previously recorded sites, unless they can be shown to be of low heritage significance.

12.2 SITE REGULATIONS IN THE HERITAGE RESOURCES OVERLAY AREA

The Municipality will require the developer to search and identify any known heritage sites within 500 meters of any recorded heritage sensitive lands and to comply with all Province of Saskatchewan legislation.

Any substantive development that lies within these sensitive lands shall be referred to the provincial Heritage Unit for a heritage review.

Should a Heritage Resource Impact Assessment be required, it is the responsibility of the developer to have it carried out by a qualified professional under an approved investigation permit. The study should establish:

- a) The presence of heritage sites within the project areas;
- b) Suitable mitigation measures that could be implemented;
- c) The content, structure, and importance of those heritage sites; and
- d) The need for a scope of any mitigative follow-up.

If such an assessment is not done or having been done, Council may defer the issuance of a development permit until such time as all mitigation requirements have been met.

12.3 HERITAGE RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

- .1 Heritage resource development shall be a discretionary use in all zones.
- .2 Heritage resource development shall be exempted from site and frontage area requirements.

13.0 EROSION AND SLOPE INSTABILITY OVERLAY (SI)

The Intent of this Overlay Area is to restrict development in areas that are considered hazardous for development for reasons of excessive soil erodability and/or ground instability. The following regulations are intended to apply supplementary standards for development in areas designated as having potential for instable soil conditions due to erosion or excessive slopes. The areas identified are shown on the Reference Maps 6, 7, 8 and 9 and the Zoning Map, and may be updated on a regular basis when new information becomes available.

No person shall within Erosion and Slope Instability Overlay District use any land, or erect, alter or use any building or structure, except in accordance with the following provisions:

- .3 Council may require a surveyor to determine where this line or crest of valley is located at the developer's expense and development will be set back from that line at all points.
- .4 Any application for a Development Permit on any parcel of land that lies wholly or partially within an area identified in the "Erosion and Slope Instability Overlay Area, must be accompanied by a detailed site analysis prepared by a geotechnical engineer registered in the Province of Saskatchewan. The site analysis shall indicate topography, surface drainage, geological, and geotechnical conditions at the site of the proposed development and related to the conditions of the general area as they relate to slope instability and erosion hazards.
- .5 The geotechnical engineer shall answer the following questions:
 - a) Will the proposed development be detrimentally affected by natural erosion or slope instability?
 - b) Will the proposed development increase the potential for erosion or slope instability that may affect the proposed development, or any other property?
- .6 Unless the geotechnical engineer can answer "no" in response to both of the above questions, further analysis will be required. The required analysis must define the hazard as it may affect the proposed development and any other potentially affected property. The engineering report will identify hazard mitigation measures including engineered works and other measures deemed to be effective in eliminating or managing anticipated erosion and slope stability impacts, and will identify and explain known and suspected residual hazards. The responsibility for monitoring and responding to monitored findings shall be resolved before approval is granted.
- .7 A Development Permit shall not be issued unless the report on the site, presented by the professional consultant, indicates that the site is suitable for development or outlines suitable mitigating measures and documents residual hazard.
- .8 If such an evaluation is not done, or having been done, Council determines that excessive remedial or servicing measures are necessary to safely and efficiently accommodate the proposed development, Council shall not be required to approve the application for development.

14.0 CAUTIONARY FLOOD HAZARD LANDS OVERLAY(FH)
